

I am writing to oppose any action that would change the FCC rules to allow for media consolidation. The proposed rule changes would benefit private, rather than public, interests by further narrowing control over the dissemination of information through media outlets. I ask that you extend the time for public comment on this issue and oppose any votes that would change the current rules to allow for further media consolidation.